

Michon Trent joined the Mayor's Executive Staff in June 2016 as Senior Director of Civic Engagement. Her overall responsibilities will be to lead large-scale Mayoral initiatives focused on greater civic engagements in areas such as mentoring, eradication of homelessness, volunteerism, along with arts & culture.

Prior to joining the Mayor's team, Michon worked as a Development Officer for University of South Alabama Health System and Mobile Area Education Foundation. In her role at the University of South Alabama, she coordinated donor engagement events, community engagement events, created the Emergency Medical Endowment, and designed the first Medical Center Magazine.

While at Mobile Area Education Foundation, she designed a comprehensive annual giving campaign and a volunteer campaign of 12 business professionals to assist with fundraising.

For over two decades Michon worked as a clinical Social Worker, with school aged children and adults suffering from mental illness.

Michon has served in a number of community leadership roles. Currently she serves on the statewide boards of Alabama Humanities Foundation as Vice Chairman, Voices for Alabama Children's, Secretary and locally on the boards of Bank on South Alabama, Distinguished Young Women, United Way Women's Initiative, and Mobile Community Action, Inc., Homeless Coalition Alabama Gulf Coast Continuum of Care. She previously served on Boys and Girls Clubs of South Alabama, Providence Hospital Foundation, Family Promise and Historic Mobile Preservation Society.

Michon graduated with a bachelor's degree in Social Work from Azusa Pacific University in Azusa California and with a master's degree in Social Welfare from the University of California at Los Angeles. She attended Indiana University Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, Fundraising School.
