

Continue Cartledge W. Blackwell, III

Blackwell is currently working on two monographs. One focusing on artist-designer Clara Weaver Parrish is to be published by the University of Alabama Press. A second on architect George B. Rogers is the beginning stages of development.

In addition to his work with the Mobile Historic Development Commission and research endeavors, Cart also serves as the Alabama representative to the Southeast Chapter of the Society of Architectural Historians, a trustee of the Cahaba Foundation, vestryman at Christ Church Cathedral (Episcopal) of Mobile, and a board member of the Friends of Magnolia Cemetery. He is a member of the Rotary Club of Mobile and a candidate for the Leukemia Lymphoma Society's Man of the Year Award.
